Tucked behind the prestigious guard-gated enclave of The Strand at Headlands, awaits this prime ocean view sanctuary of peace, calm, and privacy on one of the largest homesites in the community. Boasting appx. 91 feet of frontage, this French Provincial estate built by RDM General Contractors delights with carefully crafted interiors by Coronado Design Group, and meticulous landscape architecture by Daniel Stewart. A gated courtyard entry introduces the appx. 9,005 SF residence and leads to the opulent grand foyer, captivating it's guests with head-on blue water views. The main level hosts two gleaming living rooms, two dining areas, caretakers quarters, en suite bedroom, gourmet chef's kitchen complete with top-of-the-line Wolf appliances, office, and two spacious covered patios. Beyond the main living area, pocket glass doors reveal a zero-edge pool and spa that seem to merge with the sea below. An elevator services all three levels along with a second wrought-iron spiraled stairway. The owner's suite occupies a separate wing of the home with beamed ceilings, freestanding tub, oversized walk-in closet, and a sitting room. A home theatre, second office/learning center, subterranean seven-car garage (appx. 3,000 SF), billiards/game room, and an entertainer's rooftop deck round out the splendid amenities. Residents of The Strand enjoy exclusive perks a Strand Beach Club ownership with a commercial kitchen, state-of-the-art fitness center, beach access, and a putting green.
