Immerse yourself in the luxurious lifestyle you've always wanted in this impeccable Arcadia home. Commanding attention on a large lot in the Santa Anita Oaks area, this newer-build residence crafted by Robert Tong Design and Mur-Sol Construction exudes timeless elegance. The embodiment of curb appeal, its façade is defined by manicured landscaping lining the circular driveway leading to the double-door entry. One of many chic chandeliers greets you in the grand foyer where striking inlaid-tile floors will take your breath away at first impression. Warm color tones, rich wood millwork, and handsome hardwood floors are on display throughout the sweeping layout. A picture window ushers abundant sun into the living room, and the ornate fireplace offers a nice spot to welcome guests. Wide archways anchored by a stately column connect you to the formal dining room where glass doors open to an enchanting courtyard. Equal parts form and function, the chef's kitchen combines ample storage and prep space with an oversized marble island. Top-of-the-line appliances equip not only this culinary space but also the adjoining butler's pantry and the wet bar. Steps away, there's a breakfast nook that lets you enjoy more casual meals. Conveniently located on the main floor is a stunning office with a wall of built-in bookshelves, gorgeous coffered ceilings, and access to the secluded side yard. Intricate wrought-iron railing adorns the curved staircase leading to the upper-level accommodations, including the expansive primary suite with a sitting area. French doors take you to its covered balcony where you can start the day admiring peaceful views while sipping a cup of coffee. Pamper yourself with spa-like relaxation in the ensuite with elegant dual vanities, a standalone shower, and a soaking tub with an exquisite tile surround. Completing this ultimate retreat is an oversized walk-in closet with built-in organizing systems. Whether it's a weekend get-together or a lavish celebration, the generously sized entertainer's backyard is a picture-perfect backdrop. With a covered patio and another sitting area off the family room, there's space for everyone. Mingle around the shimmering pool and spa while towering mature trees give you privacy. Other notable features include a laundry room with built-in storage and an attached 3-car garage. Grab your popcorn and host movie nights in the home theater with a screen and projector. Come for a tour while you still can!
