Three bedroom beach front condo in Cabarete for sale This luxury condo fulfills the dreams of those wanting to own a luxury Caribbean home on the beach where you can sit on the shady terrace and watch the ocean waves gently lap the palm fringed beach. The moment you open the patio doors your whole body relaxes as you take in the view of the ocean where in the afternoons wind surfers can be seen dancing with the waves. This is a really comfortable home where you will look forward to returning to after learning to surf, sail, horse ride, off-roading, hiking in the lagoon and mountains, or exploring hundreds of miles of beaches and coves along the North coast. It is also one of the largest condos in the area that has a large terrace where you could store your surfing equipment and from where you can watch family members enjoying the water sports or simply swimming in the sea or playing in the sand. Each spacious en-suite bedroom is exquisitely furnished with superb contrasting colors and matching bedding complemented by paintings that add something to each room. The kitchen, with mahogany cabinets and granite top, has everything you need for entertaining and is perfectly located for the chef to be included in conversations around the dining table. After dinner you can sit on the terrace and watch the starlit night sky, or relax on the comfortable sofas in the living area. Or, you can retire to the separate family room where you can sit together and watch television which is something most other condo complexes don't have. This apartment is the epitome of luxury which is why it is so popular with wealthy renters not only because of the quality of the furnishings, but also its location to both the beach and the many beach restaurants that you can walk to. On a night you will be attracted by the romantic colored lights and lanterns of the bars and restaurants where you will make many friends from around the world. The apartment is so stylish that you will want to invite friends over for dinner or to relax beside the pool that fronts the beach. In the mornings there is nothing better than sitting on your own terrace admiring the changing colors and shadows as the sun rises while drinking freshly made Dominican fruit juices and coffee. This is an apartment you must view when you come to the North coast.
