Welcome to 1348 Cambridge Road! Custom built for the Potter family in 1926 this landmark home was built during the roaring 1920's and no expense was spared in its construction or finishing. Stunning English Tudor style with incredible detailing throughout including extensive use of rare Flint Faience tile, leaded glass and warm hardwoods. Ideal for entertaining with large open rooms, welcoming entry foyer, incredible formal dining room, sunken living room, sunroom, separate bar area and a third floor ballroom which currently serves as one of the most amazing concert halls in the Lansing area. The eat-in kitchen was renovated & keeps with the lovely period of the home. Beautifully maintained throughout including a separate apartment over the 3-car garage. An unparalleled, extraordinary home!
