This charming, traditional Southern home truly has it all - located in historic Overbrook, walking distance from Downtown Greenville and just steps from near popular hot spots, Fork and Plough, Clare's Creamery, Bridge City Coffee, Core Pilates, Holland Park, Willy Taco + Tetrad Brewing to name a few. This 4 bedroom, 3 full bathroom home sits on a spacious and breathtaking lot over 1/3 of an acre. Equipped with every indoor and outdoor want to fulfill an entertainer's dream... balconies with downtown sunset views, porches perfect for grilling, large front porch patios, fenced-in backyard, massive detached garage with abundance of extra living space above, outdoor firepit, bonus room with phenomenal bar and movie screen... the list is endless. Entering the grand front foyer, the main level has true hardwood floors throughout, an open floor layout and tons of windows showcasing an abundance of natural light. The living room with gas log fireplace, flows smoothly into the dining room, butler's pantry and kitchen. With two master suites, upstairs and downstairs, this home is perfect for any growing family. The large kitchen has new butcher block countertops, high-end stainless steel appliances, and the perfect nook for all the extra items that tend to land in the kitchen. The covered back deck overlooks the luscious backyard and cozy outdoor fireplace. 3 large bedrooms are on the second story, with en suite master bathroom including a soaking tub, separate shower, and walk-in closet. You may want to start your home tour this weekend on the third floor in the cedar lined bonus room, play a little foosball while watching your favorite football team on the big screen. 1405 East North Street is the perfect spot to call home - schedule your showing now!
