Welcome to your Dream Maker! Be prepared to be amazed with the stunning views from inside and outside of this home. This home would be a great place to raise a family; or to enjoy as a second home retreat to gather with family and friends on those well deserved excursions. This is a split level Frank Lloyd Wright inspired "Prairie Style" home with interiors and exteriors in balanced harmony to take advantage of the stunning views and nature. The kitchen is thoughtfully designed with lots of space for large gatherings. To make life even easier there is a Dumbwaiter to haul all your groceries from the garage to the kitchen and the primary bedroom and bath has it's own wing! The owners also took advantage of the extra space downstairs to create a billiards area, a movie theater, a craft room, a home gym equipped with entertainment, and a wine cellar with a tasting room. This home also comes with the Nakoma Resort Membership. Nakoma is the only resort that has year round amenities: golf, mountain biking, hiking, snow activities and a state of the art brand new fitness facility called Altitude. Altitude has a bistro pub, a full bar, a climbing wall, and a year round heated outdoor pool.
