The Carnegie, built in 1904 to house the public library. Town Center, Beach Access, Water Views! Carefully renovated and restored creating an outstanding residence. Built from local granite with Greek Revival detail. As soon as you arrive, you know this home will be significant and memorable. Original Rotunda with terrazzo tiled floor sits beneath the detailed dome. Impressive entrance, with central reception and excellent open floor plan. Well designed and equipped kitchen. The intricate marble mantel surrounds the fireplace and immediately catches your eye when you enter the living and dining rooms. Doors open to the granite patio. Perfect spot to enjoy coffee, the water views and town activity. Dappled with sunshine, the 1st floor master bedroom has an extraordinary spacious bath with marble floors, tiled shower, soaking tub and two onyx sinks. Two additional en-suite bedrooms.
