Welcome to Hidden Canyon, a beautiful, gated community tucked away in Riverside's Canyon Crest neighborhood. This community of 14 luxurious estates situated on large view lots offers rural privacy in the heart of one of the Inland Empire's fastest-growing cities. As you approach the home, the impressive prominence of the home's footprint becomes apparent. The front, gated courtyard leads you through the double doors into the home's impressive living room with bright high ceilings, travertine floors, and a multi-level staircase leading to the second-story entertainment room. You can enter either the dining room or the spacious kitchen and family room area from this room. The open floor plan and 12-foot ceilings create a luxurious feel in these rooms. The kitchen is amazing with stone countertops and subway tile backsplashes throughout the space. You'll love entertaining here with the gourmet appliances and open space to the family room and outside patios through the sliding door. There is a large guest room off the kitchen with en-suite bathroom, walk-in closet, with separate entrance. The butler's pantry between the kitchen and the dining room brings you back, full circle to the living room. Upstairs there are plenty of bedrooms and loft areas. The large entertainment loft at the top of the stairs is quite impressive. There is room for TVs, treadmills, and toys. The built-in cabinets and bookcases are a great feature as well. The hallways leading to the bedrooms and upstairs bathrooms are wide and open out to multiple loft areas which create fun areas for study or reading books. Each of the upstairs bedrooms is very spacious with high ceilings and walk-in closets. The main bedroom is a lovely retreat with a fireplace, large windows bringing in natural light, and closets with custom organizer features. The master bathroom has marble floors, travertine tiles, and upgraded features for added luxury. Living in Southern California it is important to have outdoor spaces that you can enjoy. This home offers it all with a grotto style pool complete with slides, waterfalls, spa, and outdoor fire place. The views of the surrounding hills are impressive from all areas of the back yard, including the basketball court and grassy knoll. There is plenty of room for RV parking as well as an oversized 3-car garage that has plenty of light. You'll have to come see this home in person to appreciate all that it has to offer! Recently renovated, painted, new pool heater.
