Beautiful classic villa with large terraces and private pool located in the highest part of the well-known area of Genova. The house has a large and bright living room with fireplace and access to the front terrace that surrounds the entire house. From the living room we also access the independent dining room with access to the front terrace and the large kitchen with pantry. From the large kitchen we also access the large terrace that surrounds the pool. On this same floor we also find a toilet and a bedroom with bathroom. On the first floor we find the other bedrooms and the large master bedroom that has two dressing rooms and two bathrooms en suite, as well as direct access to the private terrace with spectacular sea views. All rooms on this floor have sea views except one that overlooks the pool and has a private terrace. In the basement we find a huge space totally open for parking.
