With three miles of beach at your very own doorstep and stunning views of the glistening ocean in front of you, there is truly nothing better. Remodeled in 1970, this two-story oceanfront property is in a sought-after location on the stunning Balboa Peninsula. With just a short walk from all the shopping and dining opportunities the peninsula has to offer, this house is the perfect place for beach activities and living the ultimate beach lifestyle. Upon entry is an open living room and kitchen with direct views of the ocean. Upstairs you will find a loft and balcony with spectacular views up and down the coast, four cozy bedrooms, four bathrooms, and a convenient front and back staircase. This house has a two-car garage so you will always have a place to park. With loads of opportunities to create meaningful memories with guests, this home is a wonderful oasis. It is said that your home should be your sanctuary. Welcome to yours.
