This unique pre-construction, 4-bedroom villa is located in a new community within Cap Cana, one of the world's most sought-after and prestigious gated resort communities. It blends the traditional tropical construction with a contemporary modern design. It has been designed to the highest level of quality and comfort, both from an architectural point of view as well as in the careful choice of materials and finishes. Take advantage of an incredible opportunity to be part of this new exclusive community in which luxury, privacy, and nature all blend together to create a unique living experience. The community will offer its residents a reception center with co-working space, children's play area, shops, and more. Owners will also enjoy full access to Cap Cana's exclusive restaurants, private beaches such as Juanillo and Api Beach, Punta Espada and Las Iguanas golf course, fitness centers, spas, equestrian center, shops, and its endless additional amenities.
