Nestled in the heart of Ardmore Park, this charming and romantic hideaway aptly named "The Secret Garden" was originally the carriage house for the estate that once occupied the property. Subsequent redevelopment in the 1920's & 1930's surrounded the home, ensconcing this landmark jewel and ensuring it privacy. Leaded glass French doors in the entry frame the view of the dining room with it's vaulted ceiling. A sublime kitchen with legacy finishes and commercial appliances opens onto a private patio ideal for evening cocktails under views of the Atlanta Skyline. The formal living room with a bay window overlooking the gardens is punctuated by a soaring wood burning fireplace. Off the living room, a small nook with a bookcases and a side entry is an excellent home office space. Three bedrooms and two baths include an idyllic owners suite with multiple closets and a sleeping porch. Connected to the master by the sleeping porch, the cozy library is warmed by a marble fireplace offering an intimate spot for quiet nights at home. This thoughtfully furnished home offers a much needed respite in the heart of the city but moments away from great shops and restaurants!
