Escape to your secluded bayfront plantation in paradise! Nature Lovers, History Buffs, and Privacy Seekers, look no further than this Incredible 7 Luscious Acres of some of the most beautiful land the Florida Keys has to offer. Remnants of the Flagler Railroad are found when entering the gated property that was once believed to be a pineapple plantation. Nestled amongst the landscape is an eclectic concrete 4-bedroom, 4-bathroom ground level unique home built of quality materials, exquisite shells, Dade County Pine ceilings, and travertine floors. Enjoy the open airy artistic style allowing the picturesque outdoors in providing tons of natural light through the large sliding glass doors. Your tropical island retreat also offers a roof top moonlight deck, separate guest cottage and art studio, huge 2-car garage, gym, outdoor shower, plus separate outdoor bathroom. This unique property can easily be converted into a self-sustainable compound. Start your morning with freshly picked goods from a variety of 20+ fruit trees such as Dragon Fruit, Star Fruit, and Grapefruit. End your evenings watching the sunset on your 120 ft. dock with boat ramp or on a sunset cruise in Key Largo's prime viewing location. Room for addition, pool, and more. The possibilities are endless. Come and see this one-of-a-kind property.
