Located on 300' of waterfront on Big Manistique Lake in the charming village of Curtis. This historic 12 bedroom 11 bath home is currently operating as a B&B and lounge with a popular fine dining restaurant. This could easily be transformed back into a large residential home or family lodge. This property has amazing views of the lake from the large wrap around porch. During the winter enjoy snowmobiling on the hundreds of miles of trails right out your back door. Enjoy a crackling fire in front of the large stone fireplace and enjoy your time with family and friends. During the summer months set out on the All Sport, 10,000 acre lake and go boating or fishing. This is truly an amazing property! There have been several recent updates such as the roof and new hot water heaters as well as recently painted. Make this into your summer and winter getaway or your year round home! For those looking for an established popular business this also is for you! Call for your personal tour today. Buyers must show proof of funds or approval letter prior to any showings.
